JABATAN AUDIT NEGARA

MALAYSIA DIPILIH SEBULAT SUARA SEBAGAI SETIAUSAHA AGUNG PERTUBUHAN INSTITUSI AUDIT TERTINGGI ASIA (ASOSAI) BAGI PENGGAL 2027 HINGGA 2030

UNTUK SIARAN SEGERA

ASTANA, KAZAKHSTAN, 18 September 2026 – Malaysia sekali lagi menerima pengiktirafan di peringkat antarabangsa apabila Ketua Audit Negara, YBhg. Dato' Seri Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi, berjaya dipilih sebulat suara sebagai Setiausaha Agung Pertubuhan Institusi Audit Tertinggi Asia (Asian Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions-ASOSAI) bagi penggal 2027 hingga 2030. Kali terakhir Malaysia dipilih untuk menyandang jawatan tersebut ialah pada tahun 1982, iaitu 44 tahun yang lalu. Keputusan ini dicapai semasa Mesyuarat Lembaga Pengelola ASOSAI ke-63 (63rd ASOSAI Governing Board Meeting) di Astana, Kazakhstan, pada 17 September 2026.

Sebagai Setiausaha Agung, YBhg. Dato' Seri Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi, Ketua Audit Negara akan mengetuai Sekretariat ASOSAI yang bakal berpusat di Malaysia mulai tahun 2027. Jabatan Audit Negara Malaysia akan mengambil alih tanggungjawab tersebut daripada National Audit Office of the People's Republic of China. Sekretariat ini akan menyelaras perancangan dan pelaksanaan kesemua program ASOSAI, urusan Lembaga Pengelola, komunikasi antara anggota serta pengurusan pentadbiran dan kewangan organisasi.

Pemilihan YBhg. Dato' Seri Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi sebagai Setiausaha Agung mencerminkan keyakinan negara anggota Lembaga Pengelola ASOSAI terhadap kepimpinan beliau dalam menerajui hala tuju organisasi, khususnya dalam bidang pembangunan kapasiti, penyelidikan dan perkongsian kepakaran pengauditan sektor awam. Sejak dilantik sebagai Ketua Audit Negara pada pertengahan tahun 2023, beliau telah diberi kepercayaan untuk menerajui jawatankuasa dan kumpulan kerja strategik pada peringkat Persatuan Negara-Negara Asia Tenggara (Association of Southeast Asian Nations-ASEAN), ASOSAI dan Pertubuhan Antarabangsa Institusi Audit Tertinggi (International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions-INTOSAI), termasuk ASEAN Audit Committee, ASEAN Supreme Audit Institutions (ASEANSAI)

Knowledge Sharing Committee, ASOSAI Working Group on State-Owned Enterprises Audit (WGSOEA) dan INTOSAI Working Group on Follow-up Audit (WGFA).

Dalam mesyuarat tersebut, YBhg. Dato' Seri Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi selaku Ketua Audit Negara turut membentangkan laporan kemajuan ASOSAI Working Group on State-Owned Enterprises Audit (WGSOEA) yang ditubuhkan dan dipengerusikan oleh Malaysia sejak tahun 2024. Kumpulan kerja berkenaan merupakan Kumpulan Kerja kedua terbesar dengan 34 keahlian negara ASOSAI. WGSOEA kini sedang membangunkan ASOSAI Guidelines on State-Owned Enterprises Audit buat julung kalinya sebagai rujukan bersama untuk memperkukuh pengauditan dan tadbir urus syarikat milik kerajaan di peringkat serantau. Garis panduan ini merangkumi pengauditan kewangan, pematuhan dan prestasi khusus bagi syarikat milik kerajaan serta dijadualkan untuk dilancarkan pada Perhimpunan Agung ASOSAI Ke-17 di Jeddah, Arab Saudi pada tahun 2027.

Selain itu, dalam mesyuarat tersebut, ASOSAI turut merakamkan penghargaan kepada Malaysia atas kesediaan menjadi tuan rumah bengkel bertajuk "Performance Audit on Public Works Projects" di Akademi Audit Negara pada bulan Oktober 2026. Bengkel selama dua minggu itu akan memperkukuh keupayaan institusi audit tertinggi anggota ASOSAI dalam pengauditan prestasi projek kerja awam.

Lawatan kerja ke Kazakhstan turut merangkumi pemeteraian Memorandum Persefahaman (MoU) antara Jabatan Audit Negara Malaysia dengan Board of Audit and Inspection of Korea. MoU ini memberi tumpuan kepada pertukaran kepakaran, pembangunan kapasiti serta penggunaan teknologi dan pendekatan digital dalam pengauditan sektor awam di kedua-dua negara. Ketua Audit Negara turut mengadakan pertemuan dua hala dengan rakan sejawat dari China, Rusia, Kazakhstan, Iran dan Pakistan.

Selain itu, Malaysia juga berkongsi pengalaman melalui pembentangan kertas negara bertajuk "Audit of Sustainable Development Impact Assessment and Public Engagement" pada International Scientific and Practical Conference yang diadakan pada 16 September 2026 sempena ulang tahun ke-30 penubuhan Supreme Audit Chamber of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Mesyuarat ini, yang turut dihadiri oleh Tuan Yang Terutama (TYT) Mohd Adli Abdullah, Duta Besar Malaysia ke Republik Kazakhstan, memperakukan kemasukan SAI Timor Leste sebagai ahli ke-49 ASOSAI.

PRESS RELEASE

NATIONAL AUDIT DEPARTMENT OF MALAYSIA

MALAYSIA UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED AS SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE ASIAN ORGANIZATION OF SUPREME AUDIT
INSTITUTIONS (ASOSAI) FOR THE 2027–2030 TERM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASTANA, KAZAKHSTAN, 18 September 2026 – Malaysia has achieved another significant milestone on the international stage following the unanimous election of its Auditor General, Her Excellency Dato' Seri Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi, as Secretary General of the Asian Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions (ASOSAI) for the 2027–2030 term. Malaysia last held the position in 1982, 44 years ago. The decision was reached on 17 September 2026 at the 63rd ASOSAI Governing Board Meeting in Astana, Kazakhstan.

As Secretary General, Her Excellency Dato' Seri Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi, Auditor General of Malaysia will lead the ASOSAI Secretariat, which will be based in Malaysia from 2027. The National Audit Department of Malaysia will assume this responsibility from the National Audit Office of the People's Republic of China. The Secretariat will coordinate the planning and implementation of all ASOSAI programmes, support the work of the Governing Board, facilitate communication among members, and oversee the organisation's administration and finances.

The election of Her Excellency Dato' Seri Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi as Secretary General reflects the confidence of ASOSAI Governing Board members in her leadership to steer the organisation's strategic direction, particularly in the area of capacity development, research and the exchange of expertise in public sector auditing. Since her appointment as Auditor General in mid-2023, she has been entrusted with leading strategic committees and working groups at the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN), ASOSAI and International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions (INTOSAI) levels, including the ASEAN Audit Committee, ASEAN Supreme Audit Institutions (ASEANSAI) Knowledge Sharing Committee, ASOSAI Working Group on State-Owned Enterprises Audit (WGSOEA) and INTOSAI Working Group on Follow-up Audit (WGFA).

During the meeting, Her Excellency Dato' Seri Wan Suraya Wan Mohd Radzi, in her capacity as Auditor General, also presented the progress report of the ASOSAI WGSOEI, which was established and has been chaired by Malaysia since 2024. With members from 34 ASOSAI member countries, WGSOEI is the organisation's second-largest working group. The Working Group is currently developing the first ASOSAI Guidelines on State-Owned Enterprises Audit as a common reference to strengthen the auditing and governance of state-owned enterprises across the region. The Guidelines cover financial, compliance and performance audits of state-owned enterprises and are scheduled to be launched at the 17th ASOSAI Assembly in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, in 2027.

During the meeting, ASOSAI also expressed its appreciation to Malaysia for its commitment to host the regional workshop, "Performance Audit on Public Works Projects", at the National Audit Academy in October 2026. The two-week workshop will strengthen the capacity of ASOSAI member institutions to conduct performance audits of public works projects.

The working visit to Kazakhstan also includes the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the National Audit Department of Malaysia and the Board of Audit and Inspection of Korea. The MoU focuses on the exchange of expertise, capacity development, and the use of technology and digital approaches in public sector auditing in both countries. The Auditor General also held bilateral meetings with her counterparts from China, Russia, Kazakhstan, Iran and Pakistan.

Malaysia also shared its experience through the presentation of a country paper entitled "Audit of Sustainable Development Impact Assessment and Public Engagement" at the International Scientific and Practical Conference held on 16 September 2026 in conjunction with the 30th anniversary of the establishment of the Supreme Audit Chamber of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The meeting, which was also attended by His Excellency Ambassador Mohd Adli Abdullah, Ambassador of Malaysia to the Republic of Kazakhstan, endorsed the admission of SAI Timor-Leste as ASOSAI's 49th member.
